III. Latest developments of COVID-19:

Gail reported COVID-19 positive numbers are still high. Variants are very contagious. Schools were notified from IDPH if they are interested in receiving free SHIELD test kits they need to sign up by July.

IV. IPLAN Update:

Randi Wilson, Community Specialist with Chestnut Health Systems gave a presentation on the Menard County Substance Use Needs Assessment Overview that she completed. This is a tool for the IPLAN that is finished and will be turned in to IDPH at the end of the week. See attachments from Randi.

V. Vote on preference of billboards to be sent to graphic artist:

Gail stated six examples of items to put on billboards were sent to board members. Jeff Fore motioned and Dianne Markley seconded to have the sample that has Courage is knowing when to ask for help and the sample that has Depression, Anxiety, Stress, Substance Abuse on it to be sent to the graphic artist to have her come up with something similar and to add a contact phone number on it. Roll call of:

David Bagot – yes
Dr. Brian Miller- yes

Jeff Fore - yes
Dianne Markley – yes

VI. Health department services hours in Menard County:

Gail commented there was an advertisement in May in the Petersburg Observer listing the income guidelines for the WIC Program to get more Menard County families to get assistance from WIC. Also, staff is calling clients to let them know that they can now go to the Menard County office in person rather than doing their appointments over the phone, which is what was happening during COVID. Right now staff is at the Menard Clinic 1 day a week, and looking forward to going back to two days a week.

VII. Unfinished business:

None

VIII. New business:

Need to start thinking about going back to doing in person meetings instead of ZOOM.

IX. Next meeting:

Next scheduled meeting will be December 14, 2022 at 6:15 p.m.

X. Public comment:

None
